

Goosebumps in the Night

Do you seek out the spark of danger in the dark when something cold and stalks around the corner

Do you thrive on the thrill of that familiar chill when someone's doomed until you cannot warn her

Then follow if you dare but all who do beware for you may find a scare that fills your soul with fright and give you goosebumps in the night
