

ANNOUNCING OUR 2016-2017 STUDENT MATINEES!

September 22 and 23 / 10AM / Jefferson Center

All dreams begin at Roanoke Children's Theatre! At least when The BFG is around!!!! Join Sophie and the dream hunting Giant as they travel to Giant Country, collecting magical dreams to fill the minds of kids while they sleep. Roald Dahl's unforgettable journey inspired the Disney and Steven Spielberg movie. Audiences can watch the enchanted story come to life right before their eyes, filling everyone with amazement and wonder.

December 8 and 9 / 10AM / Jefferson Center

"Oh, the thinks you can think" when Dr. Seuss's magical, musical extravaganza hits the RCT stage in time for the holidays. Your favorite Dr. Seuss characters including Horton the Elephant, the Cat in the Hat, JoJo, Gertrude McFuzz, Mayzie La Bird and other colorful characters collide and cavort in this fantastical story that provides fun for the whole family.

February 2, 3, 6, 7, 8, and 9 / 9AM and 11AM / Jefferson Center

Amelia is a high school junior who seems to have it all: Great friends, a cute boyfriend, and a bright future ahead of her. But one night she is faced with a life-changing decision that could throw her off track for good. Her two futures converge in this new one-act play. Find out which path she chooses to walk at Roanoke Children's Theatre.

May 4 and 5 / 10AM / Jefferson Center

A singing elephant? A dancing pig? That can only mean one thing! Mo Willems' beloved and award-winning children's books, Elephant and Piggie, are coming to the stage! In this brand new vaudevillian romp of a musical, Elephant and Piggie explore the importance of friendship. Children and adults alike will be dancing in their seats as this musical experience has them doing the "Flippy Floppy Floory" all night long.
